

Marney
HOME COLLECTION by AFX

Introducing the Marney Home Collection, our newest product portfolio designed specifically for the residential market.

This stunning new collection stays true to our signature soft contemporary styling, with added warmth to broaden our appeal in residential spaces. Featuring the clean lines and simple elegance that have been a trademark of longtime AFX designer, Grant Chappelle, the Marney Home Collection is presented with traditional lamp sources.

Enjoy these exceptional design collections with series named after the amazing family behind AFX!

M

JAMIE

The Jamie Collection combines mid-century modern and contemporary design elements to create wonderful unique fixtures each with a melody of intersecting lines and interesting positive and negative space.

GRACE

Simple elegance best describes the minimalistic graceful lines of this collection with its clean uninterrupted structural elements.
